

BOARD SECRETARY

The secretary to the board of education is appointed by the board of education at the annual organization meeting. Unless the secretary is tenured, the term of office shall be for one year or for such a period of time as the board of education shall deem expedient. The term of office shall commence with the ensuing fiscal year.

The efficient operation of the office of the board of education under existing laws, statutes and directives is the responsibility of the secretary to the board of education. The chief school administrator will develop administrative regulations including a job description for the policy and submit it to the board for adoption.

The board secretary shall cooperate with all members of the staff having related administrative responsibilities.
