

What every parent and grandparent needs to know!

Looks can be deceiving.... At first glance, it appears to be the bedroom of an average teenager. However, amidst the clutter and clothing scattered on the floor, school supplies on the desk and personal care products on the vanity, there are more than 150 items that can be clues that a young person may be involved in risky, dangerous and even illegal activities.

“Hidden in Plain Sight”

An Awareness Program for Parents and Adults

Door prizes for Oxford participants:
Spirit Wear
Yearbook
$25.00 Gift Card

Wednesday, January 4, 2017

Oxford Central School

17 Kent Street, Oxford, NJ 07863

SPONSORED BY THE OXFORD CENTRAL SCHOOL PTA

Doors open at 6:30 pm, presentation begins at 6:45 pm

The exhibit is open to adults only

The audience is encouraged to explore and interact with items in the display, which may be indicative that a teenager is involved in substance abuse, underage drinking and other risky behaviors. Participants will be enlightened, educated and astonished. Local law enforcement, school staff, counselors, parents and prevention specialists will be available for open discussion.

Presenters include:

NJ Drug Enforcement Agency, a parent, Washington Township Police Department, Hackettstown Medical Center Emergency Department, Oxford Central School Staff and the Warren County Coalition for Healthy and Safe Communities
